Dear Business Owner/Community Member:

The Flood City Lightning Basketball Club was founded in 2018 by Patrick Gruss, and his daughter Taylor, as a girls' travel basketball program serving the Western Pennsylvania region and operating out of Johnstown, PA. The goal of the Flood City Lightning Basketball Club is to, through the medium of basketball, provide opportunities in which local amateur athletes may grow and develop both on and off the basketball court. It is our hope that by providing a safe, healthy, and fun atmosphere with dual emphasis on athletics and academics that our athletes will cultivate positive self-esteem and meet new people fostering new relationships that will construct the foundation necessary to make a positive impact in their communities and schools.

The Flood City Lightning Basketball Club is a nonprofit organization maintaining tax exempt status and is an affiliate member of the Amateur Athletic Union (AAU).
